

The Lynn Tait Most Promising Young Designer or Artist Award 2022

The Lynn Tait Most Promising Young Designer or Artist Award 2022 is going to be judged live by a panel of esteemed retail buyers. Following feedback from the retail judges, the decision was taken that this special award category needed to be appreciated 'in the flesh' and so creatives are invited to submit 'boards' showcasing their artistic prowess.

The deadline for entries is Wednesday 27 July 2022.

Entries should be sent by post to:
Jakki Brown,
Max Publishing, The Henries,
United House, North Road,
London
N7 9DP

Each entry should demonstrate the entrant's design talents (both generally as well as on the greeting card front) as well as give an insight into their inspirations that serve to set them apart. The 'boards' can be any size (A1 is popular) and should include information about the entrant as well as a photograph of themselves if they so wish.
